

I am a small publisher in Wisconsin. I am very concerned about the relaxed rules. Even now, the TV stations are purchasing both radio and other publishing operations in the Wisconsin Market. This is reducing competition as well as bordering on unfair competition. It really doesn't take a rocket scientist to deduce that when large media companies can buy and offer all types of media, they will knock off independents and strangle small publishers.

Thank You for your time.